

1: Sharon Anderson
 13 Bealiba Road Moe 3825
 P: 0409 436 268
 E: artfxpaint@bigpond.com
 W: sharonanderson.com.au
 FB: Sharon Anderson artist
 I: sharon.artfx

Sharon has a studio on Moe where she creates her artwork. She experiments in the fascinating medium of cyanotypes which you will see plenty of. Sharon is well known for her colourful pastels, screenprints and acrylic painting. There will be plenty of work on display including Sharon's colourful and humorous teatowels.

2: Rohan Collins 18-3 Designs
 481 Moe Willowgrove Road Tanjil south
 E: daycol61@hotmail.com
 P: 0435 746 977
 FB: Open Studios Latrobe

Rohan paints using the medium of air brush. His main subject is portraiture but he also paints wildlife and fantasy. Air brush is very versatile and can be painted on MDF, canvas, clothing and automotive. Rohan will display and demonstrate his artwork at his home. Vehicles will be on show featuring his amazing work.

3: Cheryl Cook: Artybird Australia
 185 Early Road (via Becks Bridge Road) Tanjil Sth
 P: 0414 390 419
 E: cheryl@artybirdaustralia.com
 www.artybirdaustralia.com
 FB: Artybirdaustralia
 I: artybird185

My identity within the land goes beyond words. My artwork aims to explore our sense of engagement with place and the physical landscape of Gippsland. The stories I experience gain a foothold in a culturally mystical landscape. This informs my conceptual views and frames of reference utilizing various tracers and physical elements of place based on textiles.

4: Jill Loader
 185 Early Road (via Becks Bridge Road) Tanjil Sth
 E: jloader01@gmail.com
 P: 0418 802 682
 FB: Jill Loader Visual Arts

Jill dyes cotton fabrics that are made into shawls that can be draped. She also makes coiled cotton rope baskets and organic shaped necklaces and buttons that are made from polymer clay. Her works are inspired by organic objects. Jill will be set up at Cheryl Cook's inspiring studio.

5: U3A Art Classes
 Latrobe Regional Gallery
 Commercial Road Morwell 3840
 P: 0407 631 543 (John Brown)

The University of The Third Age 'U3A' Drawing & Painting Group is a group of people who in their later lives wish to satisfy their creative abilities in a way, which demonstrates knowledge of the nature of different art materials used to create work, which reflects their artistic endeavors.

6: PollyannaR
 211 Commercial Road Morwell
 P: 0421542099
 E: studio@pollyannar.com
 W: pollyannar.com

PollyannaR bold art practice starts with creating one of the world's longest photographs. Passionate about empowering people and regenerating places through arts activism. Her new Gallery Studio is a creative safe haven in the heart of Morwell full of endless possibilities. You'll find her most days watercolouring in the window.

7: The Bee & The Spider
 16 George St Morwell 3840
 P: 0413 187 158
 E: thebeeanthespider@gmail.com
 FB: The Bee & The Spider
 I: thebeeanthespider

The Bee and The Spider is a creative hub for local makers to showcase their work. It has handbags, body products, jewellery, toys and much more. New owner Amanda, will be adding new products to the store, including many new sewing kits and basic sewing supplies. Also, lots of new craft classes are coming soon.

8: arc Yinnar
 19-21 Main Street Yinnar 3869
 P: 03 51 631 310
 E: arcyinnar@speedweb.com.au
 W: www.arcyinnar.org.au

arc Yinnar is a unique centre for creativity and contemporary arts that combines two galleries, a vibrant performance venue, studio spaces for artists, and resource services. arc is the longest artist run initiative in Australia starting in Yinnar in 1983. Come and visit and see the artists and the latest exhibition

9: Yvette Atkins
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0438 682 556
 E: yatkins2009@hotmail.com
 FB:

I produce art works within the mediums of painting, printmaking, drawing, digital photography, sculptural ceramics, carved stone and; installation using reclaimed materials that highlight the interplay of creative design and recycled objects. Within these mediums and any chosen area of inquiry I may also explore my Maori heritage through symbol, artefact, motif and mother memory.

10: Dijanne Cevaal
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0429 115555
 E: dcevaal@gmail.com
 I: origidij

origidij.blogspot.com
 Dijanne is a textile artist incorporating dye, print and hand or machine stitch into her work. Recent work has been inspired by daily walks in the Crinigan Road Bushland Reserve and dreams of travels in times past. Most of her work is underpinned by stories.

11: Mira Halpern
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0429 552 290
 E: pedalfish414@hotmail.com
 I: miraceramics

Mira is a potter and her inspiration are the fate of asylum seekers/refugees and expressing her emotions through clay. She mostly hand builds in clay whilst appreciating the necessity for wheel throwing skills. Mira's studio is at arc Yinnar where she creates and teaches classes.

12: Sheena Jones
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0437 195 853
 E: domrestu@dcsi.net.au
 I: pamelawellbeloved

Freak Show Unchained. A missed opportunity. Still We make our passage through our lives. Finding materials and spaces that make a gambol on joy.

13: Bron McKenzie
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0418 172 573
 E: bronrees56@gmail.com:

Colour is Bron's main inspiration when creating with 'fluid painting' and she experiments with different mediums to tint her paints, such as inks, mica powders and of course other acrylic paints. She loves the challenge of blending new colours using just the three primary colours plus white and black. Visit Bron's studio and see her artwork and demonstrations.

14: Tracey Minster
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0413 706 739
 E: tracey.minster@bigpond.com
 FB: Tracey Minster Jewellery

Tracey, a local jewellery artist, has furthered her skills in monotype printing using geli plates and botanicals gathered during her many lockdown walks. Exploring this medium provided quick access to 'art therapy' and is very accessible to anyone and can be achieved without artistic training, as nature provides the creative beauty for these multi-layered prints.

15: Amanda Thompson
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0466 670 817
 FB: Amanda Thompson

Amanda has a studio at the unique artist run space, arc Yinnar where she works with the medium of woodcut relief printing. She gains her inspiration from the local industrial landmarks unique to the Latrobe Valley such as the briquette factory. See Amanda at work and view her impressive collection of prints on display.

16: Kate Zizys & Pezaloom
 arc Yinnar
 P: 0468 493 732
 E: Greenworkspress@gmail.com

Pezaloom & Kate will be presenting photographic works and digital mash-ups at arc Yinnar. Pez and Ziz will be making works at Arc from 11-3 during Open Studios Latrobe. 'Please come along and have a look at our process, check out some of our finished pieces and have a chat with us'. If you wish, pre-book a meeting time.

17: Matchbox Gallery
 Pip Nikodemski & Marie Ward
 36 Main Street Yinnar 3869
 P: 0429 432 896
 E: Matchboxgallery@bigpond.com

The Matchbox Gallery has recently reopened as an art gallery, specialising in leadlight repairs. Marie and Pip have painting, drawing, ceramics and sculpture backgrounds. They are happy to show you through their studio, answer any questions and look forward to sharing their creative knowledge.

18: Jenny Peterson
 61 Tarwin St Boolarra 3870
 M: 0427 090 545
 W: www.jennypeterson.net.au

Jenny Peterson is a printmaker living in Boolarra. After 30 years of art practice and exhibiting, she specialises in etching and printing from found objects. The found objects she collects are gathered from her local Gippsland environment. They include scrap metal and plant specimens to make prints, greeting cards and collage works. Jenny also teaches printmaking and other studio techniques.

Covid restrictions may apply at all studios

